Amplitude Surgical: strong growth rewarded by the “ETI France” 1st prize at the 2017 Deloitte Technology Fast 50 awards

Valence, November 23, 2017, Amplitude Surgical (ISIN: FR0012789667, Ticker: AMPLI, PEA-PME eligible), a leading French player on the global surgical technology market for lower-limb orthopedics, announces that it has been awarded the “ETI France” (French mid-size company) 1st prize at the 2017 Deloitte Technology Fast 50 awards.

This prize rewards Amplitude Surgical’s buoyant growth since 2012, with sales up +81% at end-June 2016 vs. end-June 2012, giving average annual growth of over 16% over the period, driven by the success of its innovative products and solutions as well as the accomplishment of its international businesses in key territories.

Olivier Jallabert, Chairman and CEO of Amplitude Surgical, says: “The Deloitte Technology Fast50 prize rewards the merits and quality of execution of Amplitude Surgical’s growth strategy. Thanks to the high level of dedication of our teams, this winning strategy, based on global deployment and a portfolio of innovative products, will allow our sales to exceed €100 million this year. Our objective of doubling our sales over 5 years (to June 2021) is thus on track, notably driven by the upcoming commercial launch of our hip and knee prostheses on the important American market.”

Every year since 2001, the Deloitte Technology Fast 50 awards promote and encourage the development of companies that combine innovation and growth in the high-tech sector. They reward the French businesses that have recorded the highest revenue growth over the last four years.
