Updating of Amplitude Surgical's financial targets

Amplitude Surgical announces that it has updated its medium-term sales guidance.

At the time of its IPO, Amplitude Surgical was forecasting 2020 sales of more than 200 million euros.

In order to take into account the rate of growth of its activity and the delay submitting the approval file relating to its ANATOMIC® posterior-stabilized knee prosthesis to the American authorities (FDA), Amplitude Surgical is now anticipating, for 2021, a doubling of its sales on the basis of its consolidated sales at June 30, 2016.
